Research Policy Document

(RPD)

Our institution is expected to carry out teaching, learning, extension, activities, and research with students as its core and society as its periphery. The institute is a firm believer that the nation's progress is dependent on the education system in place and the research policies implemented in many disciplines of commerce, humanities, and social science. Undertaking the importance of research institute-designed and all-inclusive research policies, while focusing on quality research. The institute places a strong emphasis on raising research awareness among students and faculty alike. While establishing a research culture on campus, the institute focuses on developing and providing the necessary infrastructure facilities. Keeping this in mind, the college adopted the Research Policy in 2023-24.

Objectives:

1. To allocate a significant budget to attend national/international conferences and publish research articles.
2. To link research with quality centers at the state, national, and international levels.
3. To oversee research efforts among our faculty members, a committee is constituted.
4. To encourage faculty to write research papers in high-quality journals and participate in UGC and university projects.
5. To establish new research centers and strengthen existing ones, as well as construct necessary infrastructure.
