DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

Programme Outcomes :

The outcomes the programme provides in common with Master's Programs in the Faculty of Arts ,Commerce and Law are as follows:

- 1) The learner develops the ability to use critical, analytical, and reflective thinking and reasoning
- 2) The learner acquires the ability to reflect on social and ethical responsibilities in his/her professional life.
- 3) The learner gains experience and confidence in the dissemination of project/research outputs
- 4) The learner acquires the competence to work responsibly and creatively as an individual or as a member or leader of a team and in multidisciplinary environments.
- 5) He /She learns to communicate effectively by oral, written, graphical and technological means and have competency in English.
- 6) On completion the learner can independently research and acquire information, and develop appreciation of the need for continuously learning and updating..
- 7) The learner becomes able to assess the impact of the economic, social, and political environment from a global, national and regional level.
- 8) The learner gets to know how to access written and visual, primary and secondary sources of information, interpret concepts and data from a variety of sources in developing disciplinary and interdisciplinary analyses.

In particular, this program offers a comprehensive and up-to-date review of the major fields of Political Science and provides the students with a rigorous conceptual framework, basic analytical tools and sound methodological training in the discipline. The program covers the major fields of Political Science (Comparative Politics, International Relations, Political Theory, Public Administration and Indian State and Society) and offers a rich set of specialization possibilities.

The programme is formulated following CBCS structure with a combination of disciplinary core courses and elective courses, Students at each semester get the choice to select the area of their choice. therefore from the first semester itself each student gets the opportunity to specialize in a particular domain

The programme provides 64 credits spread over four semesters, with the foundational courses kept the first semester and more specialized areas in the final semester.

Programme Specific Outcomes :

- Political Sciences as 'Master Science' had spawned International Relations, later emerging as an autonomous discipline, Comparative Politics later shifting to Area Studies and Public Administration which again became an autonomous discipline though taking a turn to management and policy studies. This Masters programme provides a broad view of this disciplinary development.
- The programme provides a balanced treatment between the Western and the Indian political thought and theory.
- The programme provides a balanced treatment to both empirical and normative aspects of the discipline of Political Science. The students get a balanced footing on concepts and methodology as the programme has made Research Methodology and Field Research compulsory.
- The programme draws inputs from allied disciplines and empowers the students with an interdisciplinary focus and understanding.
- The Programme draws on research thrust areas of the Department like India's state and sub-state politics, public policy, India's foreign policy, women and politics and social movements, to name a few.
- The programme supports problem solving skills, thinking, creativity through assignments, project work, both individual and group based.
- The programme empowers and motivates students for research in Political Science and related fields.
- Since the Department has its own dedicated library students get enough opportunity to prepare for competitive examinations.
